

AMY'S CAMP

Glamping at the Kevin Richardson
Foundation Reserve,
home to the Kevin Richardson Wildlife Sanctuary.

An opportunity to go off the grid and get back to nature, but with some added creature comforts.

Hear the lions roar surrounded by the big five in a safely fenced camp.

Why visit?

Those coming for a day tour at the sanctuary can be in close proximity to the sanctuary, avoiding travelling during peak traffic periods.

The camp is great for a quick malaria-free weekend getaway if you're not wanting to travel too far.

It's also a great stop to rest before heading off to other bush areas after a long flight.
